

beauty | grooming

GLOBAL DREAMER » »

brad kalavitinos

PERFUMER/MULTIMEDIA ARTIST
 JOSEPH K

www.josephk.com

After studying various perfumery disciplines, Brad Kalavitinos began to build ambitious scent structures that could interpret his artistic concepts. age I don't worry or think about it. born USA. thing that made the world sit up and take notice of you When map magazine contacted me. describe yourself in ten words Creative, witty, patient, passionate, honest, quiet, introverted, odd, observant, sensitive, charismatic. gets you out of bed in the morning Ideas for fragrance formulations ... and to feed my cat. something you discovered this month That my computer of eight years has a video-editing program that works. last time you were surprised Last week when someone gave me a random compliment about how good I smelled. I rarely tell people I'm a perfumer. scares you Passive aggressiveness and power-obsessed people. idea of complete happiness Travelling for both business and pleasure. last time you did something for the first time I visited Los Angeles. makes you different A strong determination to not produce mediocre fragrances. worth fighting for Personal integrity and creative freedom ... without them others will build your coffin for you. world needs to change People need to stop watching reality television programs and actually get on with living their own lives. biggest inspiration The poet E. E. Cummings. tell me about grooming Grooming is a definite necessity but I'm not obsessive about it. Looking good starts inward then outward. words of wisdom Fear is evil. Love yourself as hard as you can.

#01

#02

SPICE

Parisian perfume house Diptyque's Eau Duelle is inspired by the alluring scents of the ancient Spice Route, which ran from Babylon to Goa, Venice to Carthage. Combining scents such as white vanilla and dark frankincense – which were revered in ancient civilisations – Eau Duelle makes for a perfect winter-time perfume with a touch of exoticism.

#03

#08

GORGEOUS

The Australian outback is alive with aromatic intensity – from the fresh menthol of eucalyptus to the rich sweetness of natural bush honeys; Drawing inspiration from natural fragrance, Australian-made and owned company Absolutely Gorgeous specialises in lush skin and body products made from pure, organic ingredients. Scents of lavender, mandarin and macadamia will fill your bathroom with intoxicating aromas.

#04

#05

- 01 Bb Texture Hair (un)stressing Creme from www.bumbleandbumble.com
- 02 Stila Smudge Stick Eyeliner from www.mecacosmetics.com.au
- 03 Diptyque Eau Duelle from www.diptyqueparis.com
- 04 Stila Holiday Colour Wheel Palette from www.mecacosmetics.com.au
- 05 Muslin Face Cloth from www.paij skincare.com
- 06 Bb Seaweed Shampoo from www.bumbleandbumble.com
- 07 Little Lamb Calm Bum Rash Dimment from www.naturesboundaries.com
- 08 Body Custard – Coconut and Lime from www.absolutelygorgeous.com.au

#07

ORGANIC

Nature gives humanity so much and asks so little in return. Maker of affordable organic products Nature's Boundaries works to give something back to the world in return for the quality natural resources it uses. Nature's Boundaries is eco-conscious at every step of production, from formulation to packaging, and donates part of its profits to fairtrade groups. Furry companions and kids are also taken care of with ranges of cleaning and pampering products.

#06